SHELTERING WINGS

HAVEN • HOME • HOPE

“As base a thing as money often is, yet it can be transmuted into everlasting treasure. It can be converted into food for the hungry and clothing for the poor. It can keep a missionary actively winning lost men to the light of the gospel and thus transmute itself into heavenly values. Any temporal possession can be turned into everlasting wealth. Whatever is given to Christ is immediately touched with immortality.” A. W. Tozer

"Sheltering Wings does really important work that helps people find their way in life with God's grace. It's a blessing for us and gives us ultimate satisfaction to support the Sheltering Wings' mission."

Bob Poorman,
Vice President,
HardingPoorman Group

"It is my firm belief that every woman should have the opportunity to feel both safe and empowered. Sheltering Wings not only does a remarkable job of offering refuge to victims of domestic violence, but it also helps those individuals assert control over their lives again and regain the self-esteem and confidence necessary to move forward. I am happy to be involved with an organization that gives hope back to the women and children it serves."

“It has been just a little over a month now and look at everything I have done: I have gotten my taxes done all by myself. I took a test to see what my strong points are. I know I want to go back to accounting. The staff helped me create a resume. Staff is taking me to get my hair done, then to a women’s conference Saturday, and we have a dance to go to on February 13! I know my road has only started but look how far I have come in just a short time.”

Letter From The Chair

Dear Friends of Sheltering Wings:

Every year as we create the annual report for Sheltering Wings, we have an opportunity to provide our volunteers and donors with a snapshot of the previous year. We get to share information pertaining to our budget, our board, fundraising events, shelter services, and outreach programs in the community.

I like to think that we have an attitude of gratitude at Sheltering Wings. Every gift we receive is truly a blessing and has a real impact on the work we're doing every day. Hopefully that is reflected in some small way by the pictures and stories you'll see in this report, but more than likely it's something you will need to experience for yourself to get a real feel for the difference you are making.

The way in which we minister to the women and children living with us is truly unique. As someone who has had the opportunity to walk the halls of the shelter and see the staff interacting with our residents, or to see the volunteers working because they believe in the ministry of the shelter, it's easy to see why we have such a high success rate of healing. We are honored that God has chosen us to be the vehicle for healing and changing lives every day, and we are grateful to our volunteers and donors who feel the same way.

We know that there are many people who give generously of their time or treasure, but who have never had the opportunity to visit us to see first-hand the work we're doing. If you are one of those people, I would like to encourage you to schedule a time to tour the shelter to see how your donation is making a difference in the lives of the women and children at Sheltering Wings or to see how you can get more involved in our ministry. If you would like to schedule a time to tour the shelter, please call our CEO, Maria Larrison, at 317-386-5050.

Without your support there is no Sheltering Wings and no resource to help end the cycle of domestic violence. On behalf of the board and staff of Sheltering Wings, thank you for your past and continued support.

Sincerely,

Greg Hylton
Sheltering Wings Board Chairman

Board Members

“What has impacted you most about the shelter’s ministry in 2010?”

Greg Hylton, Board Chair
Indianapolis Colts

“We are grateful that God has a plan for Sheltering Wings and He allows us to be the vehicle for healing and changing lives every day. We are grateful to “you” for believing in us. Without your support there is no Sheltering Wings, there is no healing, and there is no resource to end the cycle of domestic violence.”

Dan Bond, Vice Chair
Development Committee
Capstone Benefits

“I have been amazed this year by the tremendous work performed by our volunteers, both during the capital campaign and in the everyday fulfillment of the Shelter’s mission. A person’s time and talent are very precious gifts, and many women and children have been blessed by those who choose to use those gifts in service to the Shelter.”

Dave Clark, Treasurer
H.R./Finance Committee
Clark C.P.A.

“Not only have I seen it make a difference in the women and children’s lives, but also in my own life.”

Deanna Sanders, Secretary
H.R./Finance Committee
Citizens Gas

“The biggest impact for me about the Shelter is the hard work, dedication and continual work of all the employees of Sheltering Wings – God continues to give them the strength, knowledge and support that they need to help the women and children in more ways than most could ever imagine.”

Bobbi Drury
Development Committee
Brightpoint

“Rather than focusing on the pain and fear, we are giving the women at the shelter an opportunity to focus on hope, new beginnings, and a fresh start! Hearing the success stories from the women residing at the shelter and knowing we are making a difference is so inspiring.”

Paul Hardin
Governance Committee
Hendricks County Recorder

“Any effort to help a child or woman avoid further abuse is amazing.”

Kellye M. Gordon
Governance Committee
Cummins, Inc.

“Sheltering Wings is like no other place I know. Within its walls, transformations happen. Fear and desperation turn into love, joy, compassion and hope. I became involved in the Shelter thinking I could help make a difference. Instead, it is I who have been so profoundly blessed by the unwavering resilience and extraordinary faith of the women and children there.”

“What has impacted you most about the shelter’s ministry in 2010?”

“It’s been exciting to watch our community get behind the expansion of the shelter. The new space will provide so many more opportunities for the women and children to rest, heal and grow.”

Dave Helm
*Building Committee
Traders Point Christian Church*

“The provision from God our Father for these women and children amazes me. His hand guides every step in the expansion of this ministry. The love and compassion He has for those who suffer cannot be measured. Our cup overflows with His mercy.”

Sue Hoffeditz
*Program Committee
I.U. Hospitals*

“I continue to be in awe of the way God uses the staff and volunteers at Sheltering Wings to protect, nurture and help in countless ways the women and children who are victims of all the faces of domestic violence. The ministry is thriving and lives in this and future generations are being profoundly affected in so many positive ways.”

Dave Blanford, Vice Chair
*H.R./Finance Committee
Retired*

“I am humbled by the staff at the Shelter. Their continued compassion for the women and children is amazing.”

Cindy Leffler
*Development Committee
Indianapolis Power & Light*

“It’s a rewarding feeling to know that there is a safe haven for women and children, which is faith-based and allows life-changing opportunities from the loving staff, volunteers and support of so many other people.”

Ronda Elliott
*Development Committee
M & R Construction LLC*

“The year 2010 for Sheltering Wings is characterized for me by the significant expansion of the facility and a mission being fulfilled to an even greater degree. We extend heartfelt appreciation to all of those who gave to make it possible.”

Mission

Sheltering Wings provides emergency housing for women and children suffering from any form of domestic abuse. We build stable and independent lives through essential programs offered in a supportive and Christ-centered environment.

Vision

Sheltering Wings was formed in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ. The Center will extend the love and compassion of Christ to women and their children in the desperate circumstances of domestic violence. Christ was never coercive or offensive, and neither are the services provided by the Center. Our assistance to any victim of any background will be offered in the name of Christ.

HAVEN • HOME • HOPE

“Many O Lord my God are
the wonders you have done.
The things you planned for us no one can recount to you; were I to speak and tell
of them, they would be too many to declare.”

Psalm 40:5
