I thank my God every time I remember you.

In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.  Philippians 1:3–6

Our work must continue.
Dear Friends: As my first year at Sheltering Wings draws to a close, I feel just as privileged to be in this position—if not more so—than on the day I started. I am blessed to have joined an organization with such a compelling mission, skilled and compassionate staff, and dedicated board, all powered by an amazingly supportive community. Every day, I reap the benefits of the good work accomplished in the years before I arrived.

Lives are changing as families seek refuge at the Shelter and move on to stable and independent lives. Few things are as exciting as celebrating the milestones our families establish in their journeys to self-sufficiency and safety. Each milestone represents the emotional and economic skills and knowledge they’ll need to start over in a safe environment.

Sadly, we continue to confront the realities of domestic abuse. Despite our recent expansion, we are nearly always at capacity. We’ve also seen increases in the average length of stay, further straining our capacity. But the numbers pale in comparison to the very real and heartbreaking effects of abuse upon the women and children we serve. The need for Sheltering Wings is great.

Our work must continue. Your generous gifts of time, prayers, encouragement, and financial support ensure that Sheltering Wings will be there to serve the next terrified victim and their children who call our crisis line. Thank you for everything you do for them.

In His service,

Cassie Martin, Executive Director

Dear Supporters: Every year brings changes to Sheltering Wings, and 2014 was particularly challenging. On the bright side, we had a successful transition to our new Executive Director, Cassie Martin, and we continue to be impressed with the leadership she has provided. Less positive was the uncertainty related to our ability to receive government funding while holding true to our mission.

However, our commitment to that mission and our Christ-centered approach to serving victims of domestic violence remains as solid as our faith. And despite the continued questions about those government funds, our community’s generosity and our staff’s prudent management have kept the Shelter’s financial position strong and healthy.

Our staff has been refining and expanding the services Sheltering Wings provides to our residents and the larger community. We pray that we’ll see a time when families no longer live in fear, but until then, the critical work we provide as an instrument of Christ’s love must continue.

In His service,

Dave Blanford and Bob Leonard, Co-Chairs of the Board

OUR MISSION  SHELTERING WINGS PROVIDES EMERGENCY HOUSING FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN SUFFERING FROM ANY FORM OF DOMESTIC ABUSE. WE BUILD STABLE AND INDEPENDENT LIVES THROUGH ESSENTIAL PROGRAMS OFFERED IN A SUPPORTIVE AND CHRIST-CENTERED ENVIRONMENT.
OUR VISION SHELTERING WINGS WAS FORMED IN THE NAME AND FOR THE SAKE OF JESUS CHRIST. WE WILL EXTEND THE LOVE AND COMPASSION OF CHRIST TO WOMEN AND THEIR CHILDREN IN THE DESPERATE CIRCUMSTANCES OF DOMESTIC ABUSE. CHRIST WAS NEVER COERCIVE OR OFFENSIVE AND NEITHER ARE OUR SERVICES. OUR ASSISTANCE WILL BE OFFERED TO ANY VICTIM OF ANY BACKGROUND IN THE NAME OF CHRIST.

Our services and successes

EMERGENCY CRISIS/INTERVENTION
In 2014, we answered 850 crisis calls and provided safe housing for 105 women and 119 children. After expanding just a few short years ago, we are already almost continually at capacity. While your partnership has allowed us to respond to the calls for resources, support, basic needs, and shelter, we hope to expand our staff to further increase our capacity and the resources we provide.

LIFE SKILLS/CASE MANAGEMENT
Helping domestic violence victims demands more than taking them out of a dangerous situation. It includes empowering them to build safe, stable and independent lives. Through our Life Skills program, we provide the classes, support groups, and resources needed to help survivors become self-sufficient. In 2014, we helped 101 women exit the Shelter to safe and independent lives.

CHILDREN’S PROGRAM
Children are called the “silent victims” of domestic violence, and our Children’s Program strives to give them a voice. We teach them that abuse is not normal and they don’t deserve to be abused. We help them develop safety plans. We show them how healthy relationships look so they can pursue positive, life-giving relationships and break the cycle of abuse. At any given time, more than half of our residents are children, so they are a precious, important focus for our attention.

OUTREACH/EDUCATION
Serving victims who enter our doors is only part of our role. We must also reach out to the community to prevent further abuse. During 2014, we achieved exceptional growth in our Teen Dating Violence Program, and are currently in Hendricks County middle and high schools several days each semester. We help students understand that the patterns they establish in teen dating set the foundation for their adult relationships. In addition, we speak with chamber groups, civic organizations, businesses, and churches. In 2014, our outreach and education programs reached 19,815 community members.
