The purpose of Men IN Action READ is twofold. First, we want to encourage you and the staff at your school. You invest so much heart, time, attention, treasure and passion into your students and you are making a difference! Second, we want to empower young people by reinforcing the truth that our differences are what make us unique—the message of "Meesha Makes Friends"

We've assembled a collection of resources you can use if you decide to include this in your lesson planning. It is available for you at:

ACEs

Trauma resulting from Adverse Childhood Experiences can have a profound, lifelong effect. The more we know about ACEs the better we can provide trauma-informed care and dramatically improve outcomes.
